PROCLAMATION UNDER ARTICLE 356 OF THE CONSTITUTION

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. VENKATASUBBAIAH): Sir, I beg to lay on the Table a copy each (in English and Hindi) of the following papers:

(i) Proclamation [GSR No. 397 (E)], issued by the President on May 25, 1984, under article 356 of the Constitution, in relation to the State of Sikkim, under clause (3) of the said article.

(ii) Order [GSR No. 398(E)], dated May 25, 1984, made by the President under sub-clause (i) of clause (c) of the above Proclamation.

(iii) Report of the Governor of Sikkim dated May 25, 1984, to the President recommending the issue of the Proclamation.

(iv) Notification F. No. V/11013/5/84-GSR, dated June 23, 1984, publishing a corrigendum to Notification G.S.R. No. 397(E), dated May 25, 1984, mentioned at (i) above.

[Placed in Library. See No. LT-8394/84 for (i) to (iv).]

SHRI S. W. DHABE (Maharashtra): Sir, I have given a notice on this.

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Let me hear Mr. Dhabe, please.

SHRI S. W. DHABE: Sir, a very vital and constitutional provision is involved in this matter. (Interruptions)

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Let me hear what his point is.

SHRI S. W. DHABE: Sir, I shall be very brief.

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Please, let us proceed now. Yes, Mr. Dhabe.

SHRI S. W. DHABE: There was arbitrary misuse of article 356 which gives untrammelled powers to the President and Governor to dismiss any government. Therefore this question was discussed in the Presiding Officers' Conference in 1968 and it was unanimously laid down that the constitutional powers under article 356 should not be made use of unless the party concerned is given a right to prove its majority in Assembly or if it fails to call the Assembly. In Sikkim it was not done. Interpretation of article 356 has to be in accordance with the provisions of he Constitution. There was no failure of Government as per the provisions of the Constitution. It is a black day for us that Governments are dismissed in Jammu and Kashmir and Sikkim and the Central Government is misusing these powers. So I request, through you, Sir, that this Proclamation should not be allowed to go on record and you should uphold the decisions of the Presiding Officers' Conference of 1968. At least the Chairman must go by the decisions of that Conference which modified the procedure under article 356.

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: There is nothing in article 356 which bars the laying of the Proclamation....

SHRI S. W. DHABE: What about the Presiding Officers' Conference decisions?

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: .... There is nothing like that. So it is completely in order and it has already been laid down. Now the Secretary-General.
